NOT A PERJURER Port Campbell Exhonorated in the Federa District Cours,

The case of the United States against Port J. Campbell was concluded yesterday in the federal court, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, in accordance with the instructions of the judge, without leaving their seats in the jury box.

It was a very important case and the decision is awaited with considerable interest in the western part of Oklahoma. The Charge against Campbell was per-jury, and the facts in the case are as fol-

Previous to the opening of Oklahoma Port J. Campbell was an employee of S. T. A New Commission Selected to Allot Indian

A St. Louis gentleman was in the city last night returning from El Reno, O. T., where he has been for some time watching the progress of the allotment of the Chey enne and Arapaho lands to the Indians of nected, he said, with the leading men of the territory, including Governon Steele, and he thinks it is only a matter of a few short months till the Cheyenne and Arapabo lands are thrown open for settlemen The allotting agents have been discharged the government of money to pay them and view of this fact it bec necessary for the people of western Oklahoma who have an interest in the opening of the new territory to take some action. Accordingly, a meeting was held Wednesday at El Reno and it was decided to select allotting agents to hasten the opening of the country at the expense of the interested towns in the western half of Okiahoma proper.

Accordingly the meeting appointed three commissioners from El Reno and two commissioners from Kingfisher. Judge Seay will endorse these appoint ments and send them to Governor Steele, and he, it is said, will them also and recommend them for appointment to Secretary Noble of the interior department. When this is done the new commission will proceed at once to finish the allotments and have everything in shape for the opening of the country to settlement about February. Fifteen hundred allotments have already been made, and there are 1,900 still to be made. Yesterday Major Wiegel and Captain Hartshorn of the army, stationed at Ft. Reno, left with a detail of soldiers and civil engineers to locate seven county seat sites in the new country, and every arrangement is being made for a speedy opening. The St. Louis gentleman referred to says there are thousands of people now in the western part of Oklahoma awaiting the opening of the new country and that most of them are men who were disappointed in getting claims in the reservation recently
